Reason(s) for Excision:

Three excisions are required to remove sexual material which degrades, dehumanises and demeans women. A scene in the feature shows a woman who is visibly overwhelmed by a series of ejaculations on her face, and who is then required to perform anilingus and fellatio on a man who crouches over her ejaculate-covered face. The scene, shown in close focus, demonstrates a high degree of contempt for the woman participant. The trailer for The Voyeur # 11 Live in Europe Part # 4 consists of a series of depictions of men ejaculating on women's faces, interspersed with depictions of sexual activity which focus on women's genitals and anuses, often splayed for the camera. The faces and full bodies of women are seldom seen, and the effect of such a representation is to portray women as a collection of body parts to be penetrated and ejaculated on. The trailer for The Lecher is similar in its depictions and also contains derogatory verbal descriptions of women, couched in terms which reduce them to sexual objects for the use and satisfaction of men. The scene from the feature and the two trailers degrade, dehumanise and demean women participants and women more generally.
